400 Guests Attend Nantais-Dupuis Reception

Before an altar banked with profusion of pink and white gladioli in Christ the King Church, on Saturday, October 3rd, at 10 o'clock the Reverend Father Patrick Donovan united in Holy bonds of matrimony at a double ring ceremony, Miss Martha Isabel Nantais, daughter of Mrs. Norman Nantais of South Windsor, and Mr. Stanley Dupuis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dupuis, also of South Windsor.

Entering the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, the bride was exquisitely gowned in candle light bengaline. Her gown featured a fitted pointed bodice with a scooped neck-line enhanced by a standing Queen Ann collar elaborately beaded with iridescent sequins and twinkling rhinestones. Her sleeves were long and fitted. The voluminous skirt, worn over a hoop, extended to a long cathedral train. Her finger tip illusion veil was held to her head with an Elizabeth crown of iridescent sequins and rhinestones. She carried a lace covered white prayer book topped with a white orchid that boasted shower streamers knotted with stephanotis.

Mrs. Bernadette Drouillard, as her sister's matron of honour, wore a strapless gown of nylon tulle over taffeta and chose shrimp as the shade with a matching tulle stole. She wore a floral bandeau as her head-dress with an eyebrow veil. She carried a fan shaped bouquet of Sunshine yellow mums.

Misses Monica and Helen Nantais, also sisters of the bride, attended as bridesmaids and wore identical gowns of nylon tulle over taffeta. Their gowns featured strapless bodices with matching stoles and the floor length bouffant skirts were fashioned with pleted fan inserts.

Monica wore sea-weed green and Helen chose buttercup yellow. They wore matching floral bandeaus with eyebrow veils. They carried fan shaped bouquets of bronze gladioli. Miss Judy Dupuis, niece of the groom, served as flower girl and was adorable in a floor length gown over a hoop of sea-shell pink nylon tulle over satin. She wore a head-dress of nylon tulle pouff centred with tiny rosebuds. She carried a nosegay of pink and white buttonaire mums.

Mr. Leonard Dupuis was groomsmen and Mr. Bernard Dupuis served his brother as best man. The ushers were Mr. Frank Nantais and Mrs. Ernest Bondy. Assisted at the organ by Mr. Percy Denetean, Mr. Junior Cote sang Ave Maria and On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother. Mr. Stanley Beaire sang Panis Angelicus.

Mrs. Nantais chose for her daughters' wedding a gown of Regal blue crepe with a shoulder corsage of pink carnations and wore black accessories. Mrs. Dupuis, mother of the groom, wore a gown of Bistre crepe with brown sequins. She wore a corsage of yellow carnations and Autumn brown accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate family. An afternoon dinner was served at the Anderdon Hotel where the bride's table was centred with three-tiered wedding cake encircled with miniatures of the bridal party.

A reception for 400 guests was held in the evening at the Rainbow Garden in LaSalle. Following the evening reception the happy couple left by motor for New York City. The bride travelled in a suit of Dove grey with a coral hat and wore black accessories. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses.

Upon their return they will take a residence in their new home in South Windsor.
